

City of Aurora Mural Project – Blues Mural

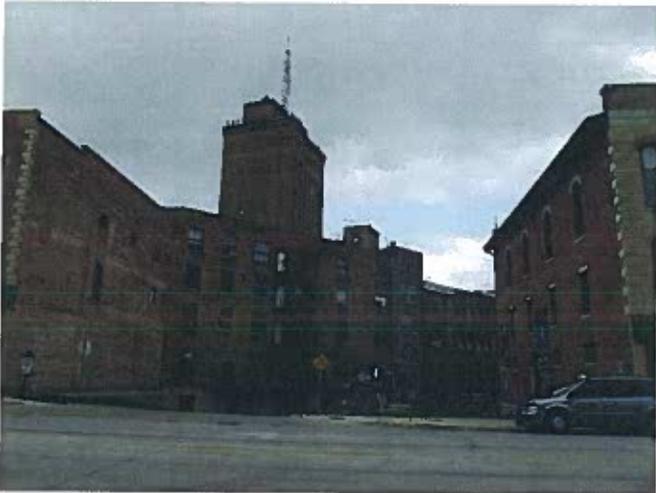

The Blues mural was painted by a collaboration of artist under direction of Patrick Kirwin of Alexandria Virginia in 2008 for the Salon Forever event in Aurora hosted by the Painters and Allied Trades Council 30 of Aurora. The mural is 30 feet long by 12 feet in height.

Cost to install: The mural is paid for and the estimated cost to mount it is $3,500-$5,000. The mural already has a protective coating and the edges are prepared for mounting.

Location: Potential locations include sites near the vicinity of Stolp Avenue (Blues Alley). The original recommended mural location was 6 E. Downer Place.

- 6 E. Downer Place (Silver Plate)

- 7 South Stolp Ave. (Leland Tower)

- 33 South Stolp Avenue. (Graham Building)

