

NASTASHA MI'CHON PRUNTY

DIRECTOR • CREATIVE DIRECTOR • PRODUCER • PLAYWRIGHT • SINGER • ACTRESS

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dynamic and visionary arts professional with a proven record of transforming local talent and community partnerships into professional-level entertainment experiences. As Founding President of Gospel Morale and Entertainment (GME), established in 2017, Nastasha has written, directed, produced, and performed in stage plays, musicals, and cultural showcases that promote diversity, empowerment, and faith through the arts. She is also a committed mentor and educator to youth and young adults.

KEY QUALIFICATIONS

- 10+ years of experience in theatre, music, live performance, and creative direction.
- Orchid Award recipient (Top Ladies of Distinction) for accomplishments in arts and entertainment.
- Director & Creative Director of “It’s My Prerogative”: A Bobby Brown Tribute, featured on ABC Channel 7 News.
- Lead actress and singer in Harper & Harper Production’s “Maggie Never Bitter”.
- Arts educator for youth and young adults.

LEADERSHIP & PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE

Founder & President – Gospel Morale and Entertainment (GME), Aurora, IL | 2017 – Present - GME is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit supporting creative arts, theatre, and film initiatives.

Coordinates fundraising and community partnerships.

Manages theater rentals and events at The Bit Theater (Theater II)

Director, Producer, & Creative Director – “It’s My Prerogative: A Bobby Brown Tribute”, Featured on ABC Channel 7 News (featured live band, dancers, and singers, designed staging, wardrobe, and marketing strategy)

Writer, Director & Producer – Original Stage Plays: Confessions of the Pastor’s Wife • Gifts Often Come Unwrapped • The Fall from Glory • Suffering in Silence

EDUCATION

B.A., Creative Writing & English — Southern New Hampshire University (Graduating November 23, 2025)

Columbia College Chicago — Coursework in Aesthetics & Storytelling; Television Arts Production

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Orchid Award – Top Ladies of Distinction (for accomplishments in Arts & Entertainment).

Featured Artist on ABC Channel 7 News for “It’s My Prerogative”.

COMMUNITY & SERVICE

Drama Director – Harvest of Faith Ministries.

Performing Arts Educator – Youth & Young Adult Arts Program (Aurora, IL).

Founder – Gospel Morale and Entertainment (GME): “Where Entertainment Has a Greater Purpose.”