

Jonathan Hylton graduated from West Aurora High School before attending Aurora University. Jonathan is a Certified Financial Planner™ and has served as a financial adviser since 1999. He began his career at Merchants National bank in 1996 then proceeded to work for Citibank/Citicorp Investment Services until he joined Old Second National Bank in 2001. At Old Second, Jonathan worked as a Vice President to help build the Wealth Management Group. In 2011, Jonathan and his partners launched Clear Perspective Advisors, LLC, a registered investment advisor based in Aurora and St. Charles.

John Savage had a long and successful career in the finance and investment industry. He served on the Aurora Library Board of Directors as Treasurer and President before being appointed to the ACCA Board of Directors.

Mike Baum is founder of Baum Property Management. He is co-owner of Gray's Mill in Montgomery, with Ballydoyle owner, Phil Cullen, and Brian Doyle.