

The FEC Movement

Financial Empowerment Centers offer professional, one-on-one financial counseling as a free public service to enable residents to address their financial challenges and needs and plan for their futures. In partnership with Bloomberg Philanthropies and others, the CFE Fund is promoting FEC replication through supporting cohorts of local government leaders to develop, launch, and implement financial counseling as a free public service, along with strategic research projects to enhance the success of financial counseling.

FEC Partner Tiers

Planning Partners ✕
Localities working toward launching a public financial counseling program using the FEC model.
Atlanta, GA	Washington, DC	Houston, TX
Roanoke, VA	Baltimore, MD	Miami, FL
Rochester, NY	Sacramento, CA	Shreveport, LA
Aurora, IL	New Haven, CT	Syracuse, NY
Polk County	San Francisco, CA
Hawai'i County, HI	Detroit, MI

Implementation Partners ✕
Previous Planning Partners that met key benchmarks, including securing match funding, who have received a CFE Fund two-year implementation grant to launch their FEC Initiative.
Memphis, TN	Pittsburgh, PA
Akron, OH	Greenville County, SC

Expert Partners ✕
The CFE Fund designates successful graduates of the two-year implementation phase as Expert Partners; these self-sustaining partners play a key role in providing technical assistance to other FEC Public partners, as well as in exploring innovative pilot efforts with the CFE Fund to enhance the FEC model.
Philadelphia, PA	Nashville, TN	San Antonio, TX
Denver, CO	New York, NY	Lansing, MI