Question applies to Civilian Review Board

Please write a brief statement concerning your interest in this board and your willingness to serve as a member.

As an individual deeply committed to community well-being and social justice, I am eager to contribute my skills and experiences to uphold the principles of accountability and transparency within our local law enforcement agencies. My genuine passion for connecting with people, combined with my proven ability to be a compassionate and attentive listener, positions me well to understand and address the concerns of our community members. I firmly believe in the importance of fostering trust between law enforcement and the public, and I am eager to actively contribute to achieving this goal as a member of the Civilian Review Board
