

Sec. 8-198. - ~~Exemption for p~~Private home parties.

~~Private home parties shall be exempted from sections 8-199, 8-202 and 8-204, but all other requirements of this article shall apply.~~ For purposes of this article, "private home parties" are those social events or gatherings held solely at a private single-family residence, featuring live musical entertainment arranged for by the resident owner and consisting of only one (1) band or performer, and at which no guest in attendance shall pay any admission fee or other required concession cost. Private home parties are subject to the provisions of the Noise Ordinance.