Community Service Director for the 25th District for Senator Karina Villa | Grassroots Organizer | Immigrant Rights Advocate | Sustainable Business Founder
Aurora, Illinois, United States

Summary

Community advocate and public servant with a passion for grassroots change, equity, and sustainability. As Community Service Director for Illinois' 25th District under Senator Karina Villa, I connect residents with critical resources and drive community engagement. I've led outreach campaigns alongside ICIRR, World Relief, and Family Focus focusing on DACA education and TVDL advocacy. With experience managing local municipal campaigns and serving as VP of Latinos UNIDOS at WCC, I bring leadership and a deep commitment to civic empowerment. I also run a sustainable, family-owned business in Aurora that provides refurbished appliances to underserved communities.
