

Aurora Section South Turnaround Full Marathon Course

Sunday, September 16 2018

The purpose of this is to provide a turn around spot for the marathoners.

No street closings are needed, subject to final course measurement we anticipate turning the runner around on the path roughly across from the apartment complex just south of McCullough Park

Final course turnaround will be determined upon course measurement in June