

Kader Sakkaria

Vice President – Technology Transformation (Cartus)

---

Kader Sakkaria is VP of Technology transformation, reporting to SVP & CIO of Cartus.

Kader leads all of Technology Build and Delivery organization across Cartus. He joined Realogy in February 2019 to oversee Cartus Technology Digital Transformation Strategic Initiatives.

Prior to joining Realogy, Kader was the Head of Business, Technology and Portfolio Management at BMO Harris Bank. Previously, Kader He has led large-scale technology transformation initiatives for fortune 500 companies like Deloitte and Accenture. He was the country head for TransUnion in South Asia. He has led PMO, offshore delivery centers at various organizations State Farm Insurance, HighMark(Blue Cross Blue Shield of PA), US Foods and Ryder Logistics . He comes with deep vertical expertise in Healthcare, Logistics, Financial Services, Consumer and Industrial Products.

Kader has held for profit board positions at Predictive Analytics Inc and D&B TransUnion PVT Ltd.

Kader holds a patent that is pending in US Patent Office for “Method and System for Estimating Relocation Costs”

Kader has earned Masters in Computer Science from University of Madras(India) and MBA in Global Management from Kellogg School of Management (Northwestern University).