

James K. Armbruster

Aurora, Illinois

12-6-14

Personal Resume

Education

1965-1968 attended Southern Methodist University

1969 attended World Campus Afloat which sailed around the world

1970-1971 attended Aurora University and received a Bachelor of Science specializing In Philosophy, Sociology, and Literature

Business

Manager of the Village Deli in Snowmass, Colorado

Office Manager of the J H Armbruster & Co in Aurora Illinois which was a family owned business manufacturing Concrete Block and Wilbert Burial Vaults

Founder and owner of ATMI Precast, Inc in Aurora, Illinois. ATMI Precast engineers, produces and installs precast for large distribution facilities, parking decks, multi-story urban retail facilities, mid-rise residential, senior living, hotels, and student housing.

Founder and owner of ATMI Dynacore in Lockport, Illinois. ATMI Dynacore produces Pre-Stressed Hollow Core floor plank for residential, hotel, senior living, and student housing.

Founder and owner of ATMI INDY in Indianapolis, Indiana. ATMI INDY produces and installs pre-stressed wall panels for the large distribution market serving Louisville, Cincinnati, Dayton, and Indianapolis.

Helped found Waubensee Development owned by Lynn L Armbruster in 1980 which is a Field Services company that provides cranes and field crews that install Precast Products on the jobsite.

Associations

- 1) Board of Directors and Executive Committee of Marklund Children's Home.
Marklund specializes in caring for medically involved severely disabled children.
- 2) Board of Directors and managing board member of NAPCO Precast in San Antonio, Texas owned by Main Street Capital, a publicly traded company in Houston Texas.

- 3) Member Chicago Family Business Council through DePaul University. A group of 120 privately held companies in the Chicago metropolitan area.
- 4) Member of the Quantum Forum Group. CEO's of privately held business.
- 5) Member of the Prestressed Concrete Institute

Interests and Hobbies

In 2007 took six months off of work and walked 20 miles per day from his home in Aurora, Illinois to the Golden Gate Bridge in California. The walk raised over $150,000 for Marklund Children's Home and raised over $400,000 at the Marklund Top Hat Ball.

Exercise, Cooking, Fishing, and traveling are all of interest in my spare time. In addition, my wife Lynn and I have worked together in the same office for 34 years. We have three children Stephanie, Jake, and Abbie.