

Cinthia Salgado

[REDACTED], Aurora, IL, 60505 • 6 [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Education:

Post Baccalaureate –Pre professional, Aug 2014-May 2015

Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL

Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences, May 2011

Illinois State University, Normal, IL

Associates of Science, May 2009

Waubonsee Community College (WCC), Sugar Grove, IL

Relevant Experience:

Lincoln Park Zoo, June 2015-Present

Developmental Coordinator Intern

- Identify and investigate government funding sources for capital, research and programmatic needs.
- Develop research profiles on foundation prospects and donors
- Maintain records in Raiser's Edge, with regard to foundation and government agencies.
- Draft proposals and other fundraising documents to secure support from foundation donors.

VNA Healthcare, Sept 2011-Aug 2014

Healthy Families Illinois (NPO) -Community-based Doula

- An intensive, home-visiting program targeted to help first-time moms who have high risk factors that can contribute to child abuse/negligence
- Provide coaching/oversight of labor and delivery
- Collaborate with nurses, midwives and Obstetricians to help ease labor and promote natural birth and breastfeeding
- Organize/Teach Prenatal classes for the community every three months
- Assist in setting the fiscal budget/outline how funds will be used
- Submit quarterly/monthly and statistical reports

Conferences/Trainings

- Midwifery Conference, April 2014
- Bereavement- Experiencing perinatal death, May 2013
- Early childhood Development, June 2012

Certifications

- Certified Lactation Consultant, Feb 2014
- Domestic Violence Advocate, June 2013
- Bereavement, May 2013

Volunteer Experience

- Rush Copley Medical Center Volunteer, Dec 2014
- Waubonsee Community College, Adult Literacy Project, July 2015

Languages

- Fluent in Spanish

References available upon request