

WORLDCOM EXCHANGE, INC. (WEI) DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY

The following is the policy of Worldcom Exchange, Inc. ("Worldcom") regarding the method for resolving any disputes between it and its customers (the "Policy"). Wherever in a purchase order, order acceptance, RFP response, bid, quotation, statement of specifications, invoice, contract, email, facsimile or other written communication by or involving Worldcom (as applicable, the "Operative Document"), reference is made to Worldcom's "dispute resolution policy" or words of similar import, the reference shall be to the following Policy, which unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties, shall be deemed incorporated by reference in the Operative Document as if set forth in full, and to apply to and bind all parties thereto and any others claiming rights or obligations by reason of the Operative Document. Further, to the greatest extent that the Policy may otherwise be deemed to apply to a transaction or other matter involving Worldcom, it is the intention of Worldcom that such Policy be given the broadest possible application based upon its disclosure to existing and prospective customers visiting this website who thereafter elect to do business with Worldcom with knowledge of the Policy.

Any dispute arising out of or related to an Operative Document, including any schedules, exhibits, statements of work or other annexes thereto and any transactions or other legal relationships related thereto, the exclusive venue for the adjudication of such disputes shall be the Circuit Court of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit, Kane County and that the Illinois law shall apply to such disputes without regard to its choice of law principles.
