TACTICAL RESPONSE TO DYNAMIC TERRORIST INCIDENTS

5 DAY HANDS-ON COURSE

Course Description:

This course is designed specifically for small specialized teams who are tasked with emergency response to critical incidents and implementation of counter measures against terrorist's attacks.

The course teaches proactive counter-terrorism tactics as they relate to the planning, preparation, and execution of hostage rescue, high risk building entry, vehicle takedowns/ assaults, bus assaults, "active shooter" incidents, dynamic and slow methodical operations in IED/ booby-trapped environments, high risk suspect detention and extraction in hostile environments, and other related missions.

Note: The material and skills taught in this course strictly adhere to all US constitutional laws as well as US law enforcement policies and regulations pertaining to use of force and standard methods of operation.*

Training Objectives:

Upon completion, participants will:

- Possess an in-depth understand of the nature of dynamic terrorist incidents.
- Understand the roll of tactical operators in various counter terrorist operations.
- Understand the skills and tactics required to successfully handle a wide range of terrorist incidents.
- Possess the ability to formulate plans of action and utilize appropriate tactics based on overall risk assessment.
- Possess the ability to implement and articulate response tactics and level of force

Target Audience:

This course is designed for all levels of federal, state, and local law enforcement officers assigned to specialized enforcement, tactical units, or special units; officers assigned to protecting large venues and/ or critical infrastructure, as well as any individuals within such agencies who hold positions which influence decisions and policies. Such individuals may have direct influence over the standard of their agency's preparedness, planning of security measures for major events and/ or critical infrastructure, setting and implementing response protocols, development of counter-terrorism tactics, and designing standards of training for field application or specialized units.

Methods of Instruction:

This hands-on course combines classroom lectures utilizing PowerPoint presentations with hands-on practical exercises. It requires student involvement and direct participation in all stages of the training.

This course is only open to weapon carrying full-time commissioned Law Enforcement officers and/ or Government employees.
