| 8        |  |  |  |
| 9        | Section 1. A new Chapter 2-11, "Police Oversight," B.R.C. 1981 is added as follows:  |  |  |
| 10       | 2-11-1. – Legislative Intent.  |  |  |
| 11       | (a) The council finds that the current system of reviewing complaints against the police does not meet the needs of the community.   |  |  |
| 12       | (b) The council finds that the community would benefit from the hiring of a civilian   |  |  |
| 1314 | police auditor to review the handling of complaints, to review trends in policing andrecommend improvements to police practices, to engage with the public so that theneeds of all members of the community are taken into account in connection withpolice oversight, and to report to the public regularly regarding oversight of the police |  |  |
| 15       | <ul><li>department.</li><li>(c) In order to improve community trust in the police department, the council intends to</li></ul>   |  |  |
| 1617 | increase community involvement in police oversight and ensure that traditionallyunderserved communities have a voice in that oversight.  |  |  |
| 18       | (d) It is intended that this section will provide a system of oversight of the policecomplaint process that is responsive to the needs of the entire community and ameans for continuous improvement of police practices in the City.  |  |  |
| 19       | (e) The council recognizes that further work is needed to implement this chapter, and  |  |  |
| 20       | intends that an implementation committee will recommend further changes to this chapter to ensure that the purposes of this chapter are fulfilled.   |  |  |
