2. Introduction to Launch

Deployment Strategy

The deployment of the Application(s) is a collaborative endeavor. UKG will work with Customer to determine the most logical and efficient deployment plan of the Application(s) based upon, Application(s) purchased, and Launch duration outlined in this document. This best practice approach will be tailored to Customer's business objectives. In all deployments, UKG Pro People Center and UKG Pro Workforce Management will be deployed first and the project team members from UKG and Customer shall determine the deployment sequence of the additional Application(s) where applicable.

Launch Methodology

The Launch methodology provides a framework that generally describes how the project will progress from the start to finish. The project team follows this framework to transition Customer's existing human capital management and workforce management (if applicable) functions from Customer's legacy provider to the Application(s). UKG's deployment methodology includes the following phases:

Launch Phase	Description
Welcome	Preliminary preparation involves four basic elements: UKG's internal readiness and team assignments, Customer preparation, a project team initial kick off meeting and Application(s) access.
Requirements	UKG will perform a discovery process by interviewing the Customer's subject matter experts from different functional areas. Information that has been gathered during the requirements phase is used to determine the current system set up, the new system definition requirements and allow UKG to determine the best fit between the Customer's business requirements and the UKG Application(s).
Build	This phase is designed to configure Customer's Application(s), build interfaces, and migrate employee data into UKG Pro People Center from legacy system. This phase will also provide unit testing to ensure that each iteration delivers a fully configured component of the system.
Test	Testing includes functional/user acceptance testing for the applicable Application(s).
Go-Live	This phase consists of UKG assisting the Customer with the first live processing, the rollout of the Application(s) and transition to support.

3. Roles and Responsibilities

4. Training

Effective training is the key to high user adoption rates. Training that results in self-sufficient administrators, managers, and employees increases the efficiency of use of the Application(s) and Customer's business processes.

Having role-based training classes ensures Customer's team members are trained on the processes they will use in their day-to-day interactions with the Application(s). The timing of this training is key. UKG aims to provide the training with as little time between training delivery date and system usage as possible. This provides for Customer's users to have an opportunity to reinforce the training through real-life application before they begin to lose the skills gained in training.
