

The image shows the front entrance of a house with light-colored horizontal siding. A dark brown door is centered on the porch, flanked by white trim. To the left of the door, the numbers '617' and '619' are mounted on the siding. The porch has three wooden steps leading up to it. A white downspout is visible on the right side of the porch. A dark green bush is on the right side of the image. The house has a dark brown roof with a white gutter.

617

619