John Deere | 1997 to 2017.

MANAGER, EEO COMPLIANCE (2015 to 2017)—Strategize and manage enterprise-wide strategic and tactical execution of EEO/AA. Direct development and improvement of processes and tools, and lead continuous improvement initiatives. Serve as liaison with federal and state agencies. Instrumental in shifting perception of compliance by linking the compliance with overall diversity and inclusion strategies.

- Identified and documented compliance areas, created and implemented a comprehensive vision for training, onboarding, internal auditing, and reporting, authored article series, and remediated areas of noncompliance.
- Reduced the government/national sales request cycle time to two days, closed three open conciliations, and completed 36 Affirmative Action Plans.

MANAGER, HR GLOBAL COMPLIANCE (2014 to 2015)—Directed HR compliance investigations and risk mitigation plans in collaboration with subject matter experts and HR managers globally. Developed and delivered training and presentations, wrote and reviewed reports, and consulted on investigation processes and results. Instilled a compliance mindset in HR professionals enterprise-wide.

- Reduced case closure cycle time and improved consistency and tracking.
- Personally performed high-level, complex corporate compliance investigations.
- Created and implemented a three-phase early talent leadership development program to address high turnover rate among people of color.

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGER, SUB SAHARAN AFRICA (2011 to 2014)—Assumed management of an HR operation with inconsistent practices, outdated methodologies, and only 13 of Deere's 50 global HR processes in place. Led the implementation and revision of HR strategy, policy, compliance practices, compensation, employee development, performance management, and service delivery to business leaders in multiple countries in a matrix organization. Managed and coached performance of HR teams in countries with divergent cultures, markets, practices, and employment laws.

- Within 16 months, implemented 47 of 50 corporate HR processes throughout Sub Saharan Africa.
- Established HR strategy for expanding business operations, structures, and processes into Kenya and Ghana, ensuring consistency, repeatability, and alignment with corporate directives.
- Implemented the global compensation policy and process for variable pay, gaining local leadership buy-in and establishing fair practices throughout Sub Saharan Africa.
- From performance evaluations: "tackled long-standing, complex, challenging issues...ability to see through clutter and establish clear priorities...established HR's credibility."

MANAGER, GLOBAL DIVERSITY & INCLUSION (2009 to 2011)—Served as member of the global John Deere Inspire Core Team to inspire the next generation of innovators through education, connections, and hands-on, real-world experiences. Implemented John Deere's Representation, Engagement & Accountability Plan globally.

- Improved global alignment between regional markets and talent mixes as well as representation and accountability.
- Developed the global STEM strategy, volunteer training program, communication plan, decision analysis tools, and partner selection.

PROJECT MANAGER, GLOBAL HUMAN RESOURCES (2007 to 2009)—Collaborated on developing the Global HR Organization Design and Implementation Project plan, including shared services and centers of expertise, from concept and milestones delineation through delivery. Worked with divisional and regional leadership on structure, resources, communication, and change management facilitation.

- Collaborated on developing process improvements that aligned best practices with strategic business requirements in each region.
- Eliminated duplication of efforts around the globe, leveraging economies of scale, improving consistency, quality of hires, and employee retention, and decreasing costs 25%.

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT, MANAGER, HR KICKSTART (April 2007-Nov 2007)—Selected to develop, provide training, and implement an HR strategic plan for KickStart, a global, award-winning nonprofit enterprise that provides developing countries with tools and equipment yielding a tenfold increase in income.

- Created the organization's performance management methodology, established expectations and qualitative and quantitative metrics, and developed comprehensive training, contributing to improved employee engagement.
- Co-developed job descriptions, created the employee evaluation system, revised the employee handbook for Kenya and Tanzania, and launched an employee newsletter, improving consistency, standardization, and performance outcomes.

MANAGER, HUMAN RESOURCES, CAMPUS RECRUITING (2005 to 2007)—Led sourcing, recruitment, and selection of candidates for 500 positions. Cultivated and leveraged relationships with 38 partner universities. Supervised staff and 300 volunteer recruiters.

- Refined university recruiting and mentoring processes, improving employee engagement and retention.
- Directed the Strategic Management Program and $1.6M budget, and oversaw recruiting from top-tier MBA programs.
- Served as process owner of New Employee Integration, North America, as well as Executive Onboarding and New-to-Role Transition, resulting in decreasing the learning curve.
